To the Editors of the Chicago Daily Press The great question at present agitated respecting the Sorghum is whether it will produce granulated sugar, or whether it must be used in the state of syrup alone. The experiments of able men have already decided this, yet it may not be amiss to give additional testimony to the same point.

Last spring a friend gave me a little seed of the Chinese sugar cane, which I planted in my garden, but paid it no further attention. It grew, but none of it ripened, and last week it was killed by the frost. A few days afterwards it occurred to me to amuse myself for an hour by testing its saccharine qualities. I cut a dozen stalks, and, as I had no machine to express the juice, I contented myself with extracting a very little of the sugar, by cutting the cane into small pieces, and boiling it awhile in water. The liquor thus obtained was clarified with lime and the whites of eggs, and then boiled down to a thick syrup. A part of this was eaten to satisfy curiosity, and the remainder set aside for the time and forgotten. No effort at granulation was made, nevertheless in two days the remnant which was set aside granulated of itself, without any measures being adopted to produce that

The stocks of last year's crop in the Eastern markets are very large, and they will soon be increased by all that can be spared of about 250,000 hogsheads now being manufactured in Louisiana, and some also from Texas. The yield has been large this season in Cuba, and more than usually abundant in Hayti and other West India Islands, where the high prices of the article have greatly stimulated production.

It will be remembered, also, that the cron of maple sugar last spring was about double what it had ever been before, reaching not far from sixty millions of pounds. Thou-sands of families in the Northern States and Canada are thus supplied with sugar for the Canada are thus supplied with sugar for the year, with the exception, perhaps, of a little loaf sugar for extraordinary occasions, after having sold large quantities in the spring.

It is yet too early to make an estimate of the amount of sugar and molasses that will be manufactured in the country from the Chinese sugar cane. We do not count much upon the former, as most of the experiments are necessarily limited and imperfect in their character; but, judging from the accounts which come to us through our exchanges and otherwise, there will be large quantities of the latter manufactured, and the uniform testimony is that it is equal and in some cases superior to the best produced from the common cane.

From all these sources of supply, therefore, the people will have an abundance of sweets for the coming year, at moderate prices .- Chicago Press.

NEWSPAPAR FUSION .- Hard times among the newspapers is becoming as palpable as in any other branch of industry. The Re publican and Whig, at Quincy, Ill., were also to be joined in one, and the St. Paul Times and Minnesotian are likely to follow suit soon. In Philadelphia, the Times and Sun have been merged in one paper.

The subscribers, at the solicitation of many shareholders, are induced to alter their original plan for disposing of Saratoga City, and have adopted the following, viz: Saratoga City has been divided into 500 Shares, each share consisting of Five Lots. There are three Springs, the largest Sixty by Sevnty-five feet. These Springs will have Ten Acres of Land connected with them, and will constitute the principal prize, being valued at $10,000. These Springs are worth a fortune to the person who draws them. The water that discharges from them would supply a large city; and is pure, cold and sparkling, and posthat discharges from them would supply a large city; and is pure, cold and sparkling, and possesses mineral properties which must render this city the Saratoga of Kanzas. Plan Suggested for the Distribution.

It has been suggested by a shareholder that 10,000 Envelopes be procured, and into 9,500 of these a slip of paper or card be inserted, with the words, "This Card entitles the holder to a Map of Kanzas, which can be obtained by forwarding this Card to the Committee appointed to receive it," and into 500 of the Envelopes a slip or card be inserted, with the words "This Card entitles the holder to a Share in Saratoga City, which can be obtained by forwarding this Card to the Committee appointed to receive it." The Envelopes to be sealed and to be precisely alike—then to be indiscriminately mixed together, and numbered from No. 1 to No. 10,000, and those persons holding Certificates, by forwarding them to the Committee appointed to receive them, will receive the numbered Envelope which corresponds with the number of the Certificate which they forwarded to the Committee, and which will exhibit to them the result. This plan will probably be adopted, as it will guard against imposition.
